AR Club News #26 Solar Eclipse pictures and how to create a Gagnam Project show

April 2024, Issue 26

On April 8, 2024, a total solar eclipse crossed North America, passing over Mexico, the United States, and Canada. If you live in North America, I hope you had the time to watch some of it or experience the eerie brief dark night in the middle of the day! Below are some great sites with beautiful pictures. As usual, we hope you enjoy our latest Artsy Raven podcast episodes and have time to read some great books!

Best,

-JF Garrard

Artsy Fun - Free Author Reading event

Spring Open Mic Night and CAA National Writing Contest Winners Announcement! Thursday, April 25, 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. EST

Spring is upon us and hopefully some of us have had a chance to spend some time on writing! Fiction, non-fiction, and poetry writers are all welcomed to share a published piece or work-in-progress.

There are reading spots for 8 Canadian Authors—Toronto members and 2 non-members. Each person will read for 4 minutes.

After the readings, we will be announcing the winners (top 3 fiction and top 3 poetry) of our 2023 National Canadian Authors Association Writing Competition! To reserve your spot as a reader, please email CAA-Toronto branch President JF Garrard with subject line "April open mic and your name." Her email address is "hello at jfgarrard.com." For more details and to register for this event visit the CAA Toronto webpage: https://canadianauthors.org/toronto/events/
